

International Symposium on Social Change, Wellbeing and Social Policy Studies in East Asia

Theme: The Rise of Ageing Populations: Challenges, Coping Strategies and Policy Implications

Biography

Ka LIN, PhD in University of Tampere, Finland, and Professor, College of Public Affairs, Zhejiang University. He is doccent in University of Turku, Senior Research Fellow in National University of Singapore, and Adjunct Professor of Lingnan University, and was the director of Social Policy Research Centre in Nanjing University and chair of Social Security and Risk Management Department in Zhejiang University. He is currently acting as the vice chair of International Association on Social Quality, the vice chair of the Social Policy Committee of the Chinese Sociological Association, and the vice chair of the Committee of International Social Security Studies, the Chinese Social Security Association, etc. His researches refer to the subject fields of social policy and social security, social work and social service, sociology and public administration. He published books on social policy theories and social security studies, European welfare states and Chinese social policy, ageing studies and social care services, social quality and public administration, with the academic papers published on International Sociology, Acta Sociologica, Social Indicators Studies, Social Policy & Administration, International Social Work, Asia Pacific Journal of Social Work and Development, International Journal of Social Welfare, Journal of Community Health, Applied Research in Quality of Life, European Journal of Political Sciences, Business and Politics etc. (<https://person.zju.edu.cn/en/kalin>).

Professor LIN Ka
Zhejiang University

