

Questing for an International Higher Education Hub in Asia: The Hong Kong Experience from Comparative Perspectives

Professor Mok Ka-ho

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong

22 April 2026

Biography:

Professor Mok Ka-ho is the Provost and Vice President (Academic and Research) of the Hang Seng University of Hong Kong. He has conducted public / social policy research with particular reference to Contemporary China and East Asia. He has published extensively in public policy, public management and governance issues. He is named as a top scientist by Stanford and he ranks the first among scholars with highly cited works in "governance studies" among his peers in Chinese Mainland by ScholarGPS, an international research platform highlighting highly cited scholars globally.